

STATE MEMBERSHIP DUES

NASCA membership is open to all states and U.S. territories on a July 1 – June 30 fiscal year cycle. Dues may be renewed annually or biennially depending on the type of membership selected.

Although membership lies with the state, the state chief administrator (or equivalent) serves as NASCA's primary member. His/her senior staff and deputy directors are encouraged to participate in the various aspects of membership.

All members receive access to collegial networking through multiple outlets and access to valuable resources for your role. Benefits include:

Community

- Build relationships with state chief administrators and private sector government operations thought leaders
- NASCA Collaborate, a members-only online community
- Searchable Member Directory
- Communities of Practice, Forums, and State Collaboratives
- Standing operating committees
- Awards and scholarships to national events

Research & Thought Leadership

- Complimentary national briefings, all-state calls, and topical webinars
- NASCA Research, surveys, and executive reports identifying emerging trends and innovations in state government operations
- Overview of U.S. State Chief Administrator Area of Responsibility
